BOND MARKET

The 10-year benchmark recorded a close of 6.2382%, ending 1.5 bps higher than the close of the previous day's trading session. The yield was in the range of 6.2165 to 6.2382.

DOMESTIC BROADCAST

India's 10-year government bonds, yielding around 6.20%–6.25%, present a prime tactical opportunity amid global market chaos, thanks to record RBI liquidity injections, a six-year low in inflation (3.16%), and strong private bank demand. With the RBI's ₹1.76 trillion dividend boosting surplus funds and inflation under control, yields are poised to fall further, pushing bond prices higher. Despite concerns over state debt and foreign outflows, the central bank's support and India's resilient macro story make these bonds a high-yield, low-volatility haven. Investors should act now—before the window closes and yields compress below 6.20%.

On May 17, the RBI reported ₹ 6686.90, at 5.73% market activity in the overnight and term segments. Under RBI operations, MSF saw ₹340 crore at 6.25%, and SDF saw ₹269415 crore at 5.75%. The net liquidity absorbed totaled ₹157876.84 crore.

GLOBAL BROADCAST

Russia's GDP growth slowed sharply to 1.4% year-over-year in Q1 from 4.5% in Q4, missing the expected 1.8%, signaling a deeper economic slowdown. Industrial production growth also dropped from 5.6% to 1.1%, suggesting a potential quarter-over-quarter contraction.

The U.S. dollar fell on Monday, hitting a 10-day low against the yen, after Moody's downgraded the U.S. government's credit rating due to its $36 trillion debt. The downgrade raised concerns over the dollar's safe-haven status, especially as trade tensions and political uncertainty grow. The dollar slipped 0.7% to 144.665 yen and 0.45% to 0.83355 Swiss franc, while the euro and British pound gained 0.73% and 0.6% respectively. Traders were also reacting to U.S. trade developments: while tensions remained with China, reports suggested progress in U.S.-EU trade talks.

The European Commission has downgraded its euro zone growth forecast due to ongoing U.S. trade tensions and global trade uncertainty. GDP is now expected to grow only 0.9% in 2025 (down from 1.3%) and 1.4% in 2026 (down from 1.6%).
